The Korea Trade Promotion Corporation, Seoul, Republic of Korea, a non-profit government agency of the Republic of Korea.

III—ACTIVITIES

11. During this 6 month reporting period, have you engaged in any activities for or rendered any services to any foreign principal named in Items 8, 9, and 10 of this statement? Yes ☒ No ☐

If yes, identify each such foreign principal and describe in full detail your activities and services:

All activities were performed on behalf of the Korea Trade Promotion Corporation, Seoul, Republic of Korea.

Principal activities during the reporting period ended October 17, 1988, were related to researching the American market and economy; reviewing U.S. newspapers and publications; monitoring changes in U.S. trade and Customs laws; answering American buyers' inquiries; organizing the Seoul International Trade Fair '88; sponsoring and participating in other miscellaneous trade shows; presenting seminars for U.S.-based Korean businesses on foreign investment and U.S. trade law; gathering information on U.S. states' laws for foreign investment; and promoting increased U.S. exports to Korea. Export promotion activities included participation in seminars sponsored by the U.S. Small Business Administration; locating U.S. sources of supply for particular products; arranging joint ventures; attending and speaking at other miscellaneous seminars and luncheons; and meeting with government officials and business representatives interested in exporting to Korea.

¹The term "foreign principal" includes, in addition to those defined in section 1(b) of the Act, an individual or organization any of whose activities are directly or indirectly supervised, directed, controlled, financed, or subsidized in whole or in major part by a foreign government, foreign political party, foreign organization or foreign individual. (See Rule 100(a)(9)).

A registrant who represents more than one foreign principal is required to list in the statements he files under the Act only those foreign principals for whom he is not entitled to claim exemption under Section 3 of the Act. (See Rule 208.)

12. During this 6 month reporting period, have you on behalf of any foreign principal engaged in political activity² as defined below?

Yes ☒ No ☐

If yes, identify each such foreign principal and describe in full detail all such political activity, indicating, among other things, the relations, interests and policies sought to be influenced and the means employed to achieve this purpose. If the registrant arranged, sponsored or delivered speeches, lectures or radio and TV broadcasts, give details as to dates, places of delivery, names of speakers and subject matter.

Principal political activities performed on behalf of the Korea Trade Promotion Corp. during the reporting period ended October 17, 1988 were related to promoting U.S.-Korea trade, particularly increasing U.S. exports to Korea. Activity seeking to increase U.S.-Korea trade included disseminating political propaganda and delivering speeches to U.S. government officials and business representatives. Propaganda consisted of general news on the Korean economy, lists of Korean products available for purchase and lists of products Korea is interested in purchasing in the U.S. See attached page for detailed information on speeches delivered by Executive Director Sung Ho Cho.

13. In addition to the above described activities, if any, have you engaged in activity on your own behalf which benefits any or all of your foreign principals? Yes ☐ No ☒

If yes, describe fully.

²The term "political activities" means the dissemination of political propaganda and any other activity which the person engaging therein believes will, or which he intends to, prevail upon, indoctrinate, convert, induce, persuade, or in any other way influence any agency or official of the Government of the United States or any section of the public within the United States with reference to formulating, adopting, or changing the domestic or foreign policy of the United States or with reference to the political or public interests, policies, or relations of a government, foreign country or a foreign political party.
